

Last Name _____ First Name _____

Instructor _____

Class _____

Date _____

SOAPSTone	Your Response	Evidence from the Text (list page - and paragraph, if appropriate)
Subject	The article is about _____ _____.	The author says _____ _____.
Occasion	The events which led up to the writing of this piece include _____ _____.	The text says, "_____ _____ "
Audience	The people the author most wants to reach are probably _____ _____.	From the words _____ and _____ we can assume the author's intended audience is _____.
Purpose	The main purpose of this article is to _____ _____ .	As the author says, "_____ _____."
Speaker	The persona that the author takes on is that of a(n) _____.	From the words _____ and _____ we can assume the author is _____.
TONE*	The tone of the article is _____ _____.	Two words the writer uses to help establish this tone are _____ and _____.

\*Look at these lists of 175 possible "tone words" to help you prove what the writer's tone is